

October 22, 2022

Though Magen died in a tragedy, an accident, she did not die in vain. We come in masses to honor her memory.

October 22, 2022 marks the first annual commemorative ride to raise awareness of desert safety.

Ride with her family and share.

Let this day always be a reminder.

Granddaughter,

I miss you beyond all words.
Your smile. Your hugs. Your laugh. The world will not be the same without what a blessing your 25 years were.

For those of us who shared with a portion of that time with you we will never forget.

I love you Megi

I'm here again Meg. There are clouds today. Some dark and heavy with rain. They are mixed with large patches of beautiful blue sky.

I hear your voice ... your laughter and I see your smile. I feel sorry for those who didn't get that experience but those that did know what I'm talking about.

Your Mom is working so hard to make a difference in 4-road safety. The pain of your loss is unimaginable. She wants so badly to save lives. She knows her mission is your mission. It's who you are in life and who you are in death. Never wavering. Always pushing forward. Always with the love of family and friends. You were so full of energy, to embrace others with your enthusiasm.

Love you always, Grandma

Today Jordan came to visit your memorial & discovered someone ran into your memorial site. The beautiful butterfly Dave made for you was almost beat in half. The post were ripped out out the ground. Sunflowers were broken. Solar lights were broken. You can see the tire tracks where some one drove over a bush & straight into the side, at the back of your cross.

Thankful for the rocks that protected your cross. Your Dad, Robert & I cleaned up as much as we could. Your Dad & I will be back out next weekend with new lights & other things to fix everything.

We love you & miss you baby girl

It's so beautiful here today Megan.
They say a big winter storm is coming but I don't see it yet.
It's Your Papa's and Grammy's Anniversary today but he's probably already told you that while you're dancing in the sky. I just met someone named Daniel who stopped to pay his respects. ♥ He and his friends love to ride here & have done so from the time he was young. They were taught to ride safely just like you.
I hope others see your memorial & understand how important it is.... for themselves & others. No parent should suffer the loss of a child if there is even a chance that death could be prevented. I'm sitting here in my beach chair so grateful to those who slow & acknowledge your cross & the person on the side of the road.
They take it very seriously, following the off road vehicle laws & posted speed limits. Then it all shatters when groups or individuals go by peddle to the metal with no care in the world just like the person who robbed you of growing old. #MeganLegacy is so important. Even if it saves just one life. We know how important that is to you sweet Megi. There is so much you had planned to do with your education, determination, and all out love of life. Missing you so terribly. Missing your holiday spirit. Missing your smile & your awesome hugs.

I love you Megan forever & always. Please give Papa one of your hugs ♥ Grammy

My gorgeous angel wife,

There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about you. Everyday I wish that this never happened to you and that we were able to continue our dreams and goals together with Halo by our side. Two days before your life was taken, we were celebrating our 6 year anniversary and saying that it is time to plan our wedding and get married and start our lives together and create a family. In a blink of an eye it was taken from us. This time last year we were celebrating a new years together and now this year we still get to, but with you in heaven. I hope everyone is taking care of you up there and you have a Happy New Year. I love you so much my gorgeous baby girl and miss you with everything I am. I will always do my best for you and live for you. Please watch over all of us and help and guide us down here, we are together forever and forever to eternity baby. you are my soulmate and the love of my life. I love you and so does Halo.

She misses her mommy and I miss my wife?

Megan,

I cannot believe it has been 1 year since you were tragically taken from us. I still to this day wait for you to call me or wait for you to walk through our front door. My heart is so broken over your loss. You are forever my Sugar Daddy's girl.

I would give anything to touch you, to kiss you, to hold you, to laugh with you, to watch you continue to grow into the beautiful, loving, caring person you are.

I miss you baby & I cannot wait to see you again. I cannot wait to braid your hair again.

Continue dancing in the sky with Dad, Grandma Mary, Grandma Janice, Grandpa Hansen, Grandpa Quaid, Grandpa Ruben & all the other angels in the sky. I cannot wait to dance with you again. Love, Mom & Dad

My Dear Sweet Megan

Yesterday was Hammer B-Day & we are out here like always to celebrate w/ corn & cabbage.

Your mom did an amazing job as always. We also had the best stuffed peppers... I know you would have loved them! So this was our 2nd St. Patrick's Day weekend w/out you & it's still so hard to believe I can feel you all around which does comfort me in some ways. I just wish I could help ~~you~~ ~~you~~ ~~you~~ the pain your mom & Dad feel... Even just a little of that pain. I will continue 5/5/81/2

be there ~~and hope that some day~~ to help w/ whatever they need.

Just like you would if things were different. I love & miss you honey.

Hi Parker,

Came out to your memorial by myself today. It is a bit windy but otherwise a beautiful day. I met some amazing people last night at the Iron Door. There was a group of four (2 guys + 2 girls) that were out here in Ocotillo for the first time. They were searching for somewhere to go to camp for a night (sleep in their cars) + decided this was the place. They know nothing about Ocotillo but wanted to find somewhere that had a hole in the wall bar to go to. They couldn't have picked a better night to be there. Everyone in the place was laughing, dancing, shooting pool & having a great time. I feel horrible that I do not remember their names. One of the guys was celebrating his birthday which is today. So at midnight everyone in the bar sang Happy Birthday to him. You would love them Megan. They are just a few years younger than you (like 21-23). They had the best time. It was so fun to hang with them. I made sure to ask them if they had enough warm blankets because it did get cold last night. They laughed at me & assured me they did. They said they were going to try & find your memorial today & pay their respects - I sure hope they did. I told them & a lot of other people we met last night about your 2nd Annual Memorial Ride coming up in October. I would love to see all the new faces there.

My heart is saddened because the season is coming to a close. But I promise, no matter how hot or will out here often to take care of your beautiful memorial. We will just have to leave bright & early to try & beat the hottest times of the day.

Jordan could use some guidance from his sister. He really misses you but doesn't want to talk about it with anyone. The only thing he said to me was that his life will never be the same. He said he is ~~not~~ the same person anymore. It truly breaks my heart. If you can, try to let him know you are watching over him, that you love him & cannot wait until you see him again.

If I wasn't so creeped out about the scorpions & snakes, I would set up my chair & spend the day & night right here. It is an extremely painful place to be but yet so peaceful.

I struggle everyday trying to figure out how the driver of the Polaris & his 2 passengers did absolutely nothing to help you Megan. Watching the video of them getting out of their vehicle & rolling it over back onto its wheels, then turn their backs on you, face the other way while you laid in the dirt behind them & did nothing - they didn't try to help you. They didn't even try to call for help. They turned their backs on you & left you dead on the ground. I hope they live the rest of their life with guilt. As much as it sickens me to watch the video, I want to share it with people so they can see what these cowards did to you. For the Rangers to say it was the fault of both drivers is disgusting. The entire thing was witnessed - every bit of it was witnessed & they were clearly at fault. They even admit in the report they were in the wrong because they couldn't see anything in front of them yet continued a speed they were going to "keep-up with the group they were following". There is so much missing information (detailed & witnessed information) that is NOT included in the report because the Rangers have no clue how to handle something like this. The Rangers should be held accountable for their mistakes. Their blatant mistakes. I am so sorry major. I feel like I have failed you because they are getting away with this. It is so completely wrong in so many ways.

I wish I could make everyone aware of exactly what happened, how it happened, why it happened so they would realize why this is so incredibly painful for us.

well, I have been here for a while. I am sure Grammy, Uncle Joel & Uncle Tim are wondering if I am OK.

I am always thinking of you & still hoping you walk through our front door. There are days that I would give anything to go be with you but I am so worried about what that would do to Jordan. I just think he could handle another loss.

I ~~really~~ hope you are dancing in the sky & that you are at peace.

I love you Megan with all my heart.

Hi Baby Girl,

Here today with Jordan & Uncle Joel cleaning up. LOTS of sand this time. I promise we will continue to come over through the hottest days to take care of it.

As always, I am missing you terribly. A butterfly just flew by a few minutes ago so I know you are here with us. Keep dancing in the sky, Megan.
