Hi Meganoo,

Your Dad & I are hear checking on your beautiful memorial. People are leaving such nice notes for you.

We are really struggling with Christmas just around the corner. Holiday's will never be the same for us without you.

It's very peaceful here right now. Very few people riding by.

We love you baby girl. We will be back tonight so we can see how beautiful your memorial looks with all your lights.

Big hugs, lots
of love, mom &
Dad

Your Dad & I were up at 4:00 this morning & out the door at 5:00. It is going to be hot today so we wanted to get an early start to cleaning at your memorial cross. It's nice because there are very few people out here so we don't have to worry as much about watching our backs when people fly by us. There was a lot of sand built up so your Dad brought out his Blg backpack blower. It worked great. Auntie & I were here last weekend & tried our best to clean it but there were soooo many scorpions we chickened out. We only have a couple more weekends of coming out because it is getting too hot.

BUT we will continue to do early morning drives out here often during the summer to keep your memorial clean.

We miss you so much Megan It doesn't seem be getting any better. I still believe you are going to walk through our front door with Halo. :-)

We love you & will continue to look at photos & share memories.
You will NEVER be forgotten.

It's the day after Memorial Day. Not but beautiful peaceful sitting here at your cross. Your loss is so profound. We've been given the privilege of meeting up with the most wonderful people you send our way and we are so grateful. Your Mom & Dad miss you so much. I'm sure they have very intense moments of pain. unbearable pain. I feel that every night before I sleep and I cannot reconcile to any understanding of what happened that day. Not the careless way the person who hit you drove at high speeds and crossed into your path, or the way you are seemingly felled... Driving a safe speed on the right side of the road in proper gear & ~~had~~ a clear view until he obstructed it with his S x S & the dust, he created. Why! Why! Why!

and yet you are here with me everyday in my memories of your smile, your laughter, your beauty inside & out. I'll be out never forgotten. Thank you for your sunshine. Good N ight Megi. Say hi to Papa

Hi Sunshine,

I am here today by myself doing the best I can to clean up your memorial. Having to do a lot of shoveling to get the sand out. It is amazing how quick it fills up.

We are coming up on almost 1 1/2 years since you have been gone & regardless of what anyone thinks, it is still so very painful. I often wonder where the tears keep coming from.... I should be completely dried up at this point. :-)

Jordan & I were watching some videos recently & to hear your voice brings happiness for a brief second ≡ then anger ≡ sadness takes over. I am so thankful to have the videos to watch ≡ hear your voice but I am furious that it was taken from us at such an early age.

You will always ≡ forever be my Sunshine.

I hope you're dancing in the sky.

Hi Baby girl, 07/14/23

Here tonight with Uncle Joel. Your cross isn't as bad this time -
not as much sand as last time we were here. It is so quiet..... not a single person in sight. I love it!

We are working hard to get approval for your 2nd Annual Ride. Rangers are not making it as easy as this year.

But I am not a quitter. I will do whatever I need to
to get them to be on board so we can move forward.

I love you & miss you dearly,

Hi Megan.

I see how deeply you have touched many people's hearts including my parents. From what I've heard you are absolutely amazing. I only know a little but I can tell you are one of very few people who can really change this world for the better. All I ask is for you to look after my parents for me when I'm not here. Thank you Megan. Please Rest peacefully. You are loved by Mary.

You have touched my heart.

meagan,

today marks the 2 year anniversary of your passing over. Life has changed so very much since you have been gone. I keep hoping that life will get easier as the days go by.... but so far, I have been wrong. I know you wouldn't want me to be in pain but it's so hard not to.

Please look over Jordan. He really could use your guidance. He doesn't like to talk about that day because it is too painful for him. He lived through it. He saw his sister get taken from him. You were everything to him. All I think about is that song "who you'd be today". I still see my baby girl, smiling, laughing, I hear your voice in my head constantly.

I miss having drinks with you. I miss brushing your long beautiful hair.... I miss everything. I can't wait for the day I get to see you & be with you again. Until then, I will be here at your cross or at your butterfly release & on December 25th at 12 Noon I will always be watching for you at Double Peak. I love you so much more!

I WANT YOU TO KNOW I THINK ABOUT YOU ALL TIME. I THINK ABOUT YOU EVERYTIME WE COME TO THE DOJO. I THINK ABOUT EVERY TIME KALLIE AND I PLAY A FUN STORY GAME (WHICH I KNOW YOU WOULD BE PROUD) AND I THINK ABOUT ANY TIME I BECOME UNGRATEFUL.

I DON'T COME TO YOUR CROSS OFFICE. I'M SORRY! BUT EVERYBODY DEALS WITH CROSS DIFFERENCES. FOR US IT'S HARD TO COME TO THE PLACE WHERE I TRIED SO DESPERATELY HARD TO BRING YOU BACK TO US.

JUST KNOW I LOVE YOU AND I THINK ABOUT YOU OFTEN. YOU TAUGHT ME SO MUCH AND I LOVE YOU

Dear Meg,

I can't believe it has been 2 years.
There is not a day that goes by that you are not thought of. I can see you and your beauty all over and us. I can feel your warm hugs and hear your sweet voice.
You will never be forgotten!!! You left us way too soon but oh what a legacy you left behind. So many stories in such a short lifetime.
You lived your life now: what a wonderful example you made to everyone you come across & everyone you continue to come across now in your passing. We love and miss you so very very much.

See you soon my love.
Auntie Wendy
